Note: we're more closely related than we thought. Because of the stellar genealogical research of David Braidwood, it seems that our ancestor, Ian or John Stewart, son of Gilleaspa, had two wives. His first wife was the mother of Donald of the Chief Stewarts. His second wife was the mother of Duncan of the New York Stewarts and the mother of Archibald, father of Jack of the Hill and Red Angus. You can find more details in my welcome message on the web site, My Heritage Stewarts of Glen Lyon.
